Alexander returned JNEC head

Private Sector Organisation of Jamaica president and Grace Kennedy managing director Carlton Alexander has been reappointed Chairman of the Board of the Jamaica National Export Corporation.

Announcing the reappointment Foreign Trade Parliamentary Secretary Derrick Heaven noted Mr. Alexander's special relationship with the Board which he has served for five years.

Mr. Alexander welcomed the new and dynamic role that the J.N.E.C. had given in the establishment of the export trading house.

He pointed out that the J.N.E.C. would respond to the new function of direct overseas selling as well as traditional service it gave to exporters.
