Thanksgiving service for Miss Lou tomorrow

A thanksgiving service to mark 50 years of service to Jamaican Arts and Culture by the Hon. Louise Bennett-Coverley O.J. M.B.E., D.Litt will be held at the Core Methodist Church, East Parade, Kingston tomorrow.

The service begins at 9.30 a.m. and will be presided over by The Rev. C. Evans Bailey at who's initiative it is being held.

Specially invited guests will include the Governor General, Sir Florizel Glasspole and Mrs. Edna Manley, wife of National Hero The Rt. Excellent Norman Manley.

Tributes will be paid to Miss Lou by Mervyn Morris, Archie Lindo, the Hon. Wesley Powell O.J. and Mrs. Barbara Gloudon O.D.

Messages will also be sent by other leading dignitaries.

The service will feature musical renditions by Jimmy Tucker, Archie Lewis and Mrs. Lois Kelly Miller among others.

The public is cordially invited.
