tion ceremony for former Prime Ministers at Devon House last Thursday. The ceramic bowls and pewter plates were made at Things Jamaican as collectors' pieces in commemoration of Jamaica's 30th year of independence.
