

RIN Percival James Patterson

FEELING GOOD: Prime Minister P.J. Patterson was out meeting the press and relaxing Sunday, at his annual press party, Lilyfield St. Ann. Here Mr Patterson does the Soca-Bogle with a member of staff of the Office of the Prime Minister. The party was attended by journalists and other media representatives from all major media houses and from across the island, and by members of the Cabinet and of the government. When asked how he felt now that the Cabinet shake-up was behind him, Mr Patterson told the Herald: "I feel better today than I felt last Saturday" when speculation was rife about the Cabinet shake-up, announced the day before the party.
