

NATIONAL LIBRARY OF JAMAICA

- 1949            NEW DAY
THIS WAS THE FIRST WEST INDIAN NOVEL TO BE WRITTEN IN DIALECT FORM. IT ATTRACTED WIDE AND INTENSE ATTENTION BY LITERARY CRITICS BOTH IN THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN. SOME CHAPTERS WERE REVIEWED AS THE LEADING FEATURE IN "LIFE AND LETTERS", A BRITISH LITERARY MAGAZINE.
- 1958            THE LEOPARD
THIS WAS PUBLISHED SIMULTANEOUSLY IN BOTH ENGLAND AND THE UNITED STATES. VIC REID WAS THE FIRST JAMAICAN NOVELIST WRITING AND WORKING IN JAMAICA WHOSE WORK HAD BEEN PUBLISHED IN BOTH ENGLAND AND THE UNITED STATES AT THE SAME TIME.
- 1960            SIXTY FIVE
THIS PUBLICATION, UNDER THE JOINT IMPRINT OF JAMAICA'S MINISTRY OF EDUCATION AND LONGMAN'S GREEN AND CO., MARKED THE BEGINNING OF THE BLUE MOUNTAIN LIBRARY SERIES OF BOOKS WHICH AIMED TO PRODUCE BOOKS ESPECIALLY CHOSEN FOR WEST INDIAN CHILDREN OF MIDDLE AND UPPER SCHOOLS.
- 1967            THE YOUNG WARRIORS
- 1971            PETER OF MOUNT EPHRAIM
- 1976            THE JAMAICANS
- 1983            NANNY TOWN
- 1985            HORSES OF THE MORNING
THIS IS A BIOGRAPHY OF NATIONAL HERO, RT. EXCELLENT N. W. MANLEY.

VIC REID WROTE BOOKS FOR CHILDREN, NUMEROUS SHORT STORIES AND ARTICLES FOR NEWSPAPERS AND MAGAZINES; HE WROTE PLAYS FOR RADIO AND TELEVISION.