

Mr P. M. Sherlock Gets Post In W. I. University College Director Of Extra Mural Studies

The Secretary of State for the Colonies on the recommendation of the Provisional Council of the University College of the West Indies has appointed Mr. Philip Manderson Sherlock, B.A., to be Director of Extra Mural Studies in the University College with the status of Professor with effect from April 1st, 1947.

MR. P. M. SHERLOCK

Mr. Sherlock is the eldest son of the late Rev. Terence Sherlock. He was educated at Calabar High School, and taught there from 1919 to 1927. He was placed in the first class of the honours degree in English Language and Literature by the University of London in 1927. He was appointed Headmaster of Manchester Secondary School that year, two years later, became Headmaster of Wolmer's Boys' School, Jamaica, and subsequently Secretary of the Institute of Jamaica.

He served as a full member of the West Indies Committee Commission for Higher Education in the Colonies and is at present Educational Officer of Jamaica Welfare, Limited.

He edited the "New Age" poetry books and was joint editor of "Caribbean" readers and of "Anancy Stories".

INSTITUTE OF JAMA

National Library of Jamaica