

FORMER VICE CHANCELLOR OF THE UNIVERSITY OF THE WEST INDIES, SIR PHILIP SHERLOCK, seen exchanging views with artist July MacMillan, who painted Sir Philip's official portrait [hanging behind them]. Occasion was the official viewing of the portrait, which hangs in the UWI's Council Room, by Sir Philip and officials of the University, recently. Sir Philip was Vice Chancellor of the UWI from 1963-69. During his term of office, there was a major expansion in the postgraduate programmes offered by the University and student enrolment doubled from 2190 in 1963 to 4630 in 1969.
