AFTER SIX MONTHS in the Jamaican Reserve Regiment, Cpl. W. P. Knott has been discharged from the service. The discharge was the result of an application made by his father, Mr. W. P. Knott, of St. Ann's, Jamaica. The discharge was approved by the army medical board, which found that the condition of his eyes was such as to prevent him from continuing in the service. The discharge was effective from the 1st of this month.

Brazil Head of Trades Union Congress of British Colonial Policy: “The British Government has been working very hard on this matter and has made considerable progress. The proposals contained in the White Paper show a marked break with the past and will be welcomed by the people of the West Indies. However, there is still a lot of work to be done and the British Government must continue to work hard to ensure that the proposals are carried out effectively.”

The British Government will set up a committee of experts to advise on the development of the colonies. The committee will be chaired by Lord Moyne, who has already had considerable experience in colonial affairs. The committee will be supported by a special commission, which will be responsible for the administration of the Colonial Development and Finance Corporation.

The British Government has also announced a £1,000,000 a year to be administered by the Controller of the Colonial Development Fund. The money will be used to develop welfare services and to improve the living conditions of the people in the colonies.
